

AIA Cleveland
A Chapter of the American Institute of Architects

AIA Cleveland's Architecture Week

"Connecting Cleveland through a Celebration of Architecture"

An exhibition of regional architects and activities of the built environment and their role in the future of the region.

EXHIBITION VENUE: CONVIVIUM 33 GALLERY, 1433 East 33rd Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44114

EXHIBITION: April 16, 2010 – April 25, 2010

The following events are scheduled to be included in Architecture Week:

- Lecture by George Hartman, FAIA* Thursday, April 15, 2010, 5:30 – 9:00 pm
- A Exhibition Opening Reception: Friday, April 16, 2010, 5:30 – 9:30 pm*
- "No Building Left Behind" Tuesday, April 20, 2010, 4:00 – 6:30 pm*
- "Envisioning the Future of Cleveland" Wednesday, April 21, 2010, 5:30 – 9:00 pm*
- AIA Cleveland/IIDA Happy Hour: Friday, April 23, 2010, 5:30 – 8:00 pm*
- PechaKucha Cleveland Night: Friday, April 23, 2010, 8:20 – 11:00 pm*
- Exhibition Panel Discussion: Saturday, April 24, 2010, 2:30 – 5:00 pm*
- Exhibition Closing Party: Saturday, April 24, 2010, 5:00 – 7:00 pm*

Additional Event Information:

- *Lecture by AIA Gold Medalist George Hartman, FAIA, "The History of Architectural Education and The Community of Architects" is co-hosted by AIA Cleveland, Classical America, and the Institute for Classical Architecture, and will be held at the Union Club, Thursday, April 15, 2010, 5:30 – 9:00 pm
- AIA Cleveland, Historic Resources Committee, with Cleveland Restoration Society, the Institute for Classical Architecture, and Cleveland State University Levin College of Urban Affairs, "No Building Left Behind", a presentation and roundtable discussion of adaptive re-use of religious structures at CSU Levin College, Tuesday, April 20, 2010, 4:00 – 6:30 pm*
- AIA Cleveland, Government Affairs Committee, City of Cleveland Planning Commission Director Bob Brown, "Envisioning the Future of Cleveland", Wednesday, April 21, 2010, 6:00 -8:30 pm*

Other Anticipated Events:

- AIA Cleveland, Chad Oppenheim Lecture, Thursday, April 22, 2010, 5:30 – 9:00 pm
- AIA Cleveland, Urban Design Committee, Building Tour/Adaptive Re-use*

* Indicates events which are free and open to the public. All other events are open to the public, but have associated ticket costs.

Cleveland, Ohio – AIA Cleveland, a Chapter of the American Institute of Architects will present the 2010 Architecture Week exhibition to recognize northeast Ohio architects, along with related programming to highlight activities of the built environment looking to the future of the region. Architecture Week will be kicked off with a lecture by AIA Gold Medalist George Hartman, FAIA, and will be followed by a number of diverse programs, including the exhibition opening night reception, a presentation and roundtable discussion of the adaptive re-use of religious structures, a presentation by City of Cleveland Planning Commission Director Bob Brown, a social networking opportunity hosted by AIA Cleveland and IIDA, a PechaKucha Cleveland Night, a panel discussion to be moderated by Charles Michener, and the exhibition closing party. Other anticipated events include: an additional lecture event, and a building tour of adaptive re-use.

AIA Cleveland
A Chapter of the American Institute of Architects

AIA Cleveland's Architecture Week

"Connecting Cleveland through a Celebration of Architecture"

Who Should Attend: Everyone; architects, artists, designers, interior designers, engineers, planners, managers, brokers, real estate professionals, contractors, students, interns, building owners, facility personnel, the media, and other interested parties...

CONTACT: Event Co-Chairs
Bruce Jackson, AIA, AIA Cleveland Chapter President 2010
216.791.5600 or brj@squareonearchitects.com

Robert Maschke, AIA, AIA Cleveland Vice President/President Elect
216.281.6421 or rm@robertmaschke.com

Kurt C. Weaver, AIA, AIA Cleveland First Vice President
216.749.6223 or akwinc@sbcglobal.net

RSVP: AIA Cleveland, 1001 Huron Road, suite 101, Cleveland, Ohio 44115
216.575.1242 or aiadocs@aiacleveland.com

The American Institute of Architects has been the professional association of architects for more than 150 years, and includes approximately 80,000 members, including architects from around the world. Members have worked with each other and their communities to create valuable, healthy, secure, and sustainable buildings and cityscapes.